Today I have been in internship at Suomen Alkoholitukku which is a Finnish warehouse where they are selling alcohol, cigarettes, glasses and toilet paper and everything else that restaurants and bars need and they deliver by themselves in Kuopio and a little bit outside Kuopio and if it has to go far away then some truck companies are coming to pick it up and deliver it and I have packed some orders for some different places.

Tuesday 17/02

Today I have put some goods on the right places and packed some orders and we had to deliver some goods to two places in kuopio city center and when we came back I received a hat as a gift from an employee of suomen alkoholitukku and I got a cake that day

Wednesday 18/02

Thursday 19/02

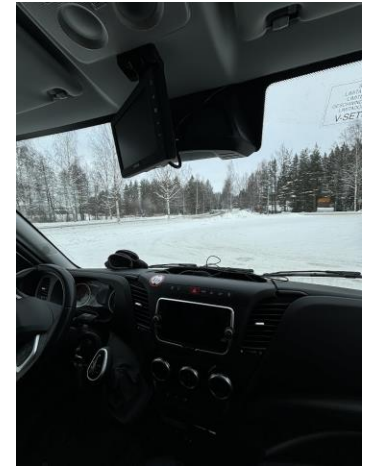

Today, the first thing I did when I got in was that I had to put a lot of goods on the shelves and pack some orders and I got to go out and deliver some goods to a few bars in the center of kuopio

Friday 20/02

Today I have packed some orders and put some goods on the shelves and then I had to go out and ride in the big vehicle where we were supposed to go to an alcohol factory with some pallets and we had to bring back two crates and then I packed some orders again and then we had to go in the small vehicle where we had many stops along the way there was one of the stops where there was a good view and a cool car from a Finnish comedy movie and I have had an awesome experience at Suomen Alkoholitukku and the boss and the other employees are super sweet and would have liked to have been there for two weeks instead of one week for the internship it's a really great workplace, and I got a nice gift from the boss.

Saturday 21/02

Now we're heading back home to Denmark, but first we have to drive to Helsinki because we have plenty of time before we need to go to the ferry and we drove around the city a bit and after that we drove to Turku where we waited to get on the ferry.

Sunday 22/02

Now we have been on the ferry from turku to stockholm and now it's time to head back home to denmark and on the way to the trip in sweden we had seen some military vehicles on the highway and it has been a good two weeks and could use another week at suomen alkoholitukku, because a week with them wasn't enough and it's a great place to work at with the nicest colleagues.
